

J. Stewart Cameron

Qualifications: BSc MD FRCP London

Honors: CBE (Commander of the British Empire) 1998; Hamburger award, ISN, 2003; Hume Award US NKF 2003; MD Hon. Caus. Salamanca, and Honors from many other universities throughout Europe and the rest of the world. Honorary member of numerous national societies of Nephrology (inc. Gesellschaft für Nephrologie, Société de Néphrologie, and the Italian, Greek, Australian, and NZ societies)

Current Position: Emeritus Professor of Renal Medicine Department of Nephrology Dialysis and Transplantation, King's College London (Guy's Hospital)

Address: Elm Bank Melmerby Cumbria CA10 1HB United Kingdom

E-mail: jstewart.cameron2@btopenworld.com

Main Interests within medical history: the growth and formation of science-based studies of the kidney from the eighteenth century onwards.

Publications: 520 peer-reviewed papers, 7 books edited or authored, 120 chapters in books

Web publications include: the Bibliography of the history of Nephrology, within the ISN website www.isn-online.org:

- a compendium of published works bearing on the history of nephrology published from 1788 until 2006

Posts held: President, International Society of Nephrology 1993-1995 (also President ISN Congress London 1987). President, European Renal Association 1984-1987; President UK Renal Association 1995-1997; President European Society of Pediatric Nephrology 1975